President Roosevelt and former President Cleveland were the guests of honor at the dedication of the new Chamber of Commerce in New York.

Molineux was acquitted of the murder of Mrs. Adams, and was given a great ovation by the crowd assembled in the courtroom and on the outside.

The wage controversy which threatened to tie up the switching terminals in Chicago has been adjusted. The men will receive a 12 per cent. increase.

There are about 30 cases of smallpox at Lexington, all under quarantine or in the pesthouse. The disease is of a mild form and no deaths have been reported.

At Fredonia, Caldwell county, Tom Ordway shot and killed A. D. Mosely. Two years ago Mosely, while serving as Town Marshal, shot and killed Ordway's father.

At Kansas City John Scanlon, a former policeman, shot and killed Dr. W. H. Kimberlin, an oculist, and then committed suicide. Scanlon left a note saying the oculist had destroyed his eyes.

Cut-rate druggists and others not cut-raters have formed the United Drug Company to reduce the cost of many articles not handled by them. The capital stock is $500,000, and the company will aim to do away with jobbers.

Increased postal receipts have followed the inauguration of the rural free delivery service. A recommendation for $12,665,800 for future necessities is that branch is made in the annual report of Robert J. Wynne, First Assistant Postmaster General.

J. Herport Morgan, to guard against a panic in the event of his serious illness or death, has organized the North American Co. with a capital of $12,000,000. The company will look after all interests controlled by Mr. Morgan, which are estimated at $5,084,280,627.

Gov. Beckham hopes to pay out by Christmas all the money due the soldiers of the First, Second and Third Kentucky regiments for services before they were mustered into the army during the Spanish-American War. The work of signing the checks is to begin at once, and paymasters will be sent out to settle with the soldiers.

Report of Executive Committee Meeting at Danville.

The democratic executive committee of the 13th Judicial District of Kentucky met at Danville at 10 o'clock Monday morning to consider the petition of over 2,000 democrats in the district for a primary election.

The committee requested those candidates who were present in person, and by representatives, to make any suggestions they desired.

J. M. Rothwell, a candidate from Garrard for Commonwealth's attorney, arose and earnestly requested that the race for the nomination for Commonwealth's attorney be in some way separated from the overshadowing race for the judgeship, and asked for a separate primary election at a different time to determine that particular nomination.

Judge John W. Hughes, a candidate for the same office from Mercer, in an energetic speech, made the same demand in the interest of fairness and harmony.

Hon. J. S. Owsley, Jr., a candidate for the same office from Lincoln, made the same demand in deference to the unquestioned desire of the party in the district.

Judge Ben F. Roach, of Mercer, representing Mr. W. Conn Bell, said that Mr. Bell had announced himself after the call for a convention and felt that he was stopped from objecting to the convention method and was satisfied with it.

Mr. Robert Harding, a candidate for the judgeship from Boyle, had no representative other than those in the committee who were popularly supposed to represent him.

Col. W. G. Welch, of Lincoln, representing Judge M. C. Sausley, said there was unquestionably in the district a strong and abiding desire among democrats for a primary, and that if there were no objections, and there seemed to be none, to the absolute fairness to all candidates of a primary election, it seemed plain that it was not only right but good politics to a close district to pay some respect and deference to the pronounced wish of the party. While each democrat in a contest for the nomination desired his choice to win now, we all, as democrats, desired the nominees to win in the final race. The committee could not at the outset afford, simply for the pride of opinion, to affront so large an element, in fact a majority of our own party and endanger its success in the final race. He said further that the requests of three out of four of the candidates for Commonwealth's attorney were just and reasonable and that they could be fully met by receding from the former ill-considered order for a convention and calling a primary under the law, fully safe-guarded against any possibility of fraud, and in which each democrat in the district could express his individual preference, not only in the judge's race, but also in the race for Commonwealth's attorney.

The committee then retired for consideration.

Mr. Reed Nichols, the committeeman from Boyle, moved that the committee stand by their call for a convention. Hon. R. C. Warren moved as a substitute that the former action calling a convention be rescinded.

The substitute motion failed to receive a second, and the original being put, was carried by a vote of three to one, Boyle, Garrard and Mercer voting for it and Lincoln against it.

The committee then adjourned.

We sincerely regret that for some political reasons Judge Thomas Z. Morrow has withdrawn from the race for the nomination for Circuit Judge in his district. Judge Morrow was a successful and accomplished lawyer—the nominee of his party for Governor, and when he was elected judge he brought excellent native abilities, rather unusual scholastic and professional culture and wide experience to the judicial service of his State. He had served well in the Federal army and risen to the rank of Colonel. He has been on the bench three terms, and his impartiality, integrity, courtesy, industry and competency have been recognized and admired by every one who practiced in any of his courts and by those who were familiar with his career as judge. The republicans and democrats united in commendation and confidence. —Lexington Herald.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Craig & Hocker's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c per box.

The Lady Macabees of McKinney will give an oyster supper at Ware's Hall on Tuesday night Nov. 18th. Everybody cordially invited. Admission 25c and 15c for children under 12 years of age. Come and we will treat you nicely.

MATRIMONIAL.

John A. Wilson, of Frankfort, aged 74, has just married his fifth wife.

In Swedish towns the average marrying age of males is 30½ years, and of females 27½.

Adjutant General David H. Murray will be married on December 18th, next, to Miss Irene Moorman, of Glendean.

Fred Kuhr, a widower of 39, and Miss Ernestine Lenke were married at the Lutheran church, Ottenheim, Wednesday.

Isaac Brackett and Miss Ora Breedlove were made one at Rev. Ed Hubbard's by that gentleman Wednesday evening.

R. A. Searce, a widower of Anderson, and Miss Minerva Smith were married at the court-house yesterday by Rev. O. M. Huey.

FRUIT-CHANCELLOR—At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Methodist church Mr. Meredith E. Pruitt and Miss Lucie Chancellor were joined in wedlock's holy bond, Rev. D. J. Rose, pastor of the Methodist church performing the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, palms and chrysanthemums and the building had been darkened for the occasion. On entering the church the bride and groom passed up the right aisle, preceded by Messrs. A. J. Adams and Vest Chancellor, ushers, while up the other aisle walked the other ushers, Messrs. George A. Dinwiddie and Fred Embury. On reaching the pulpit, which was a veritable mass of flowers, the happy pair were met by the man of God, who made them one in a pretty ceremony. At the organ during the ceremony Miss Minnie Straub rendered the sweetest of music, assisted by Mr. C. E. Cox on the violin. The bride, who is a lovely young woman, was dressed in a traveling suit of castor cloth and she carried a massive bunch of white chrysanthemums. All ways pretty, her beauty never showed to better advantage. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chancellor and is one of the most popular young ladies of her section. Mr. Pruitt is a West Ender and is a fine young man—moral, industrious and clever. He has been a pedagogue for a number of years, but has had time enough to look after his furniture and undertaking business at Moreland as well as to do considerable courting. He is of the firm of Pruitt Bros., Moreland, and that he has the confidence of the people of his section is proven by the liberal patronage he and his brother receive. Amid a shower of rice and well wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt took the noon train for Fleming county, where they will spend some time with the groom's sister, Mrs. Weiburn. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its best wishes to the happy young folks and asks for them abundant happiness and long life.

Letter From Texas.

ARLINGTON, TEXAS, Nov. 8th.—I take pen in hand to write you a few lines from the "Lone Star State," the home of the cowboy. This is a good old democratic State from line to line. The primary election here is some what like it is in Eastern Kentucky. When a man is put out here on the democratic ticket he is considered elected. The election on the 4th including the State election, reminded me more of a peaceful Sunday in Kentucky than a State election. There was no excitement whatever, no "buying," no "floating." The State went democratic to a man. Hurray for the "Rebs!" They are coming to the front. Lookout for the next National Election. It is going to be the hottest one Uncle Sam ever saw. Old Kentucky will do her part and don't you forget it, for she seldom fails.

This is a fine country down here, provided a person likes it. It is a good farming country. About 70 per cent. of all the land is in cultivation. Cotton will average about one-third of a crop this year, but it will bring a good price. The rainy season has begun in earnest. Has been raining for the last week and is still pouring down. Farmers are expecting a good crop next year on account of being so much rain this fall. This is a hunter's paradise, for game is plentiful. The jack rabbit, cotton tail, squirrel and quail are plentiful in the Western part of the State. There are also wolf, deer and coyote. Well, Mr. Editor, I guess my letter is a little lengthy and I had better close. Don't forget to send my "dada" paper. I remain a true democrat till death.

C. B. KING.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth go at once to Craig & Hocker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick-headache and constipation.

Stop and see Higgins & McKinney's new platform scales on trucks. Something every farmer needs.

LANCASTER.

Cattle trading is lively.

Sportemen are preparing for an onslaught on birds.

T. A. Anderson bought a horse of Alex. Walker for $125.

Ed Bourne sold a drove of turkeys in Stanford Tuesday at 64c.

W. S. Embry sold to T. J. Curtis, of Madison, five 1,099-pound cattle at 44c.

Duncan's barbershop has been moved to the room adjoining the Geiger grocery.

Dr. W. S. Seazley will move his office to the rooms above J. C. Thompson's store.

Some Lancaster bowlers will go to Danville to play another match game with the Boyle team.

Miss Elverson Wallace's pupils will give a box supper at Beechwood school-house on Friday evening, Nov. 21.

Rev. J. E. Wolford, of this city, is holding a protracted meeting at Brodhead and is having good attendance.

Elder A. R. Moore held cottage prayer meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson Wednesday evening.

Dr. J. B. Kincaid and others have bought building lots in the section lying along the road to intersect Water street.

Chrysanthemum lovers are enthusiastic over the luxuriant growth of these flowers this season. Mrs. C. D. Powell and Mr. Joe Falconer having unusually fine collections.

The fresh, tender verdure of the pasture lands, and the blossoming of lilacs, cripe myrtle and strawberries, are almost convincing proof that it is May instead of November.

Mr. George Wright has rented what was lately Dr. Sandlin's office from Mrs. Fox and will convert it into a dwelling, adding a front and side veranda and another room in the rear.

Erasmus Bettis was adjudged of unsound mind on Tuesday and taken to the E. L. Asylum at Lexington Wednesday. He has been in failing health for sometime and is in a decline from consumption.

The Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church will have an exchange on the day before Thanksgiving, the proceeds to be used toward the repairs that are nearing completion upon their church edifice.

The day of publication of "The Central Record" has been changed from Thursday to Friday afternoon. Mr. Landram, the editor, is striving to give the people the very best in the way of a local news-sheet, and he is deserving of every encouragement.

Messrs. Jones and Alander, of Springfield, O., bought of C. A. Robinson 152 fine yearling cattle, weighing about 600 pounds, at 44 to 46c. It is said to be the best lot of yearlings that ever left this county. The purchasers are Ohio democrats.

A Lancaster hunter was out Wednesday in the vicinity of Dudderar's Mill on Dix River, and started up a flock of wild ducks of the rare greenhead variety. He followed them down the stream for a mile, but never succeeded in getting a shot at this desirable game.

Mrs. W. H. Wherritt now has her extensive collection of chrysanthemums in full bloom and is delighted to exhibit them to all friends and lovers of flowers. She doubtless has the most varied private selection in Central Kentucky, and the most thrifty plants. One bush alone bearing over 400 blossoms.

Edwin L. Barker will present his monologue plays at the court house on next Monday evening for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society, and a large audience will doubtless be given the talented Chicagoan. Prof. Sanford Bell, of Bloomington, Ind., asserts that Mr. Barker ranks among the very first high-class entertainers before the American public. The evening's program will include music by local talent and a voting contest for the most popular merchant, doctor and lawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Baylor Jennings, of Spencer county, are here visiting their old home. Mrs. J. S. Robinson is visiting Mr. Jacob Robinson and wife, of Boyle. Mr. Towles Walker and wife are visiting at Corbin. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Long left this week for Clinton, Mo. Mrs. M. P. Frisbie has been on the sick list. Miss Annie Francis is visiting her sister at Corbin. Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Tanner, of McKloney, are guests of Mrs. W. K. Shugars. Will Noel, of Danville, is visiting relatives in this vicinity. Miss Eliza Smith returned from a visit to Lexington Monday. Mrs. E. J. Mock, of Lexington, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Soper. Dr. G. M. Hayes, of North Carolina, Mrs. Hayes and daughter, of Missouri, are guests of Mr. John T. Hayes and family. Miss Martha Hume has returned to Lexington. Mrs. Emma Higginbotham and nephew, John Anderson, are visiting the latter's brother in Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Clell Terrill has returned from Oklahoma, declaring Kentucky good enough for him. Dr. H. M. Marsh, of Danville, was here Wednesday. The Misses Marksberry left for Nashville Wednesday. Miss Fannie Farley, of Eastern Kentucky, is visiting Mrs. R. G. Ward. Mrs. R. C. Garr, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. A. D. Ford.

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING,

of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN,

of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 13th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

It is stated that the president's message will deal with both the control of the trusts and the revision of the tariff, but the tariff question will be subordinated in a marked manner to that of the trusts. The line of argument, it is understood, will be that until legislation can be obtained for the enforcement of publicity in trust operations, there is only one course to pursue—namely, to make use of such judicial weapons as existing statutes put into the hands of the government; inquire whether any of the industrial combinations are breaking the laws we already have, and if there is any reason to believe they are, to prosecute and punish them. All this sounds well, but why hasn't the president had a few prosecuted and punished before this?

HAVING been found to be loyal to the republican party, Oklahoma and New Mexico are quite certain to be admitted to the union. It is to be hoped that in a burst of congressional magnanimity Arizona which happens to be slightly democratic, will be admitted with the other two flourishing territories. Whenever a territory is entitled to admission, its politics should cut no figure.

WHEN the poet wrote about the "melancholy days, the saddest of the year" he hadn't lived to see this glorious November rival October in beauty. Yesterday was about like the "good old summer time" and made glad the hearts of all, especially those who can't afford the increased price of coal. Surely the Lord is tempering the wind to the shorn lamb.

THE "Coal Blacks" have triumphed over the "Lily Whites" in Georgia. A revenue collector who assisted in keeping Negroes out of the Republican convention has been "fired" on complaint of Negro "bores." You don't see any collectors in Kentucky kicking the "coal blacks" out of conventions.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that Commissioner Yerkes refused to discuss his recent campaigning in Kentucky. Of course he did. It certainly would have been no pleasure for him to tell the reporters that every county he spoke in gave increased democratic majorities. Such is true, nevertheless.

NORTH CAROLINA sends a solid democratic delegation to the next congress, and the election of a democratic legislature insures a democratic successor to Senator Pritchard. The evolution of a white republican party in the South is evidently to be a movement of slow growth.

TAKING the United States as a whole, the census shows that one person in every 40 has a telephone. It is said that San Francisco leads the world in the generality of telephone use. There one person in 12 has a telephone.

POLITICAL.

The Virginia Legislature assembled Wednesday in regular session. Geo. M. Fortune, of Glasgow, voted for his 63rd consecutive time last election.

Indiana's total vote at Tuesday's election was 590,071, a falling off of 65,894 from two years ago.

Republicans carried Hawaii by 2,000, electing a republican to succeed Robt. A. Wilcox as a delegate to Congress.

Lane, the democratic nominee for governor of California, who was beaten by 3,500 votes, charges fraud and will contest.

Hon. John G. Carlisle and other leading democrats are said to favor the nomination of Grover Cleveland for president in 1904.

State Senator W. A. Byron, of Bracken county, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Attorney General.

Thomas S. Byars, James Frazier, J. M. Donahue and N. B. Waugh are all announced candidates to represent Shelby county in the next Legislature.

George W. Dunn, chairman of the New York Republican State Committee, is mentioned as a probable successor to Senator Platt, of New York, who, it is reported, may decline reelection.

Senator Deboe's gubernatorial aspirations are said to be influenced by his desire to figure in the distribution of Kentucky patronage, on which Representative Boreleg is expected to have a monopoly after March 4.

It is very probable that Gen. Dan Collier will succeed Pension Agent Leslie Combs. We hope he will.

Gov. Beckham has issued a proclamation setting aside Thursday, Nov. 27, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter resigned as U. S. Minister to Guatemala and the president selected Leslie Combs, at present pension agent in Louisville, to succeed him.

At a meeting of the Joint City and County Democratic Committee at Lexington, January 6 was selected as the date for the primary for the selection of nominees for Circuit Judge, Circuit Clerk and general county and city offices.

Julian H. Bingham, Collector of Internal Revenue for Alabama, was removed from office, and Joseph O. Thompson, a brother of the democratic Congressman from the fifth district, was appointed to succeed him. The removal was because of President Roosevelt's displeasure over the tactics of the Lily White Republicans, with whom Bingham was identified.

Miss Louise Hoge, daughter of a Chicago banker, died after being ill a month and in the care of a Christian Science healer.

Bishop Camillus P. Maer, of Covington, Ky., was re-elected secretary of the board of trustees of the Catholic University of America.

Temple Pitman was murdered by his brother, Tilford Pitman, near Merriam. His head was beaten to a jelly with a maul. The murderer is an escaped lunatic from the Lakeland Asylum.

The anthracite mine owners, in their reply to the statement of John Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers, all declare their unwillingness to make the recognition of the miners' union an issue in the arbitration now in progress.

George E. Roberts, director of the mint, reports that for 1901 the precious metal production of the world was: Gold, $263,374,700; silver, commercial value, $104,999,100. The United States' net gain in its gold stocks was $63,800,000.

The United States Steel Corporation has leased 5,000 acres of coal lands in Sullivan county, Ind. This step is said to have been taken to guard against the gradual failure of gas supply and will obviate the necessity of removing the company's Western plants.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Jerry O'Connor, aged 80, is dead at Harrodsburg.

Andrew Jackson's bone near London burned. Loss, $1,500.

Archer Harmon, of Boyle, was driven insane by fear of hell.

Mrs. Ed Abell committed suicide by shooting in Nelson county.

William Archer was accidentally shot while hunting near Burgin.

Sam Lewis, an old soldier of Clay, was run over and killed by a train near London.

Lige Bledsoe, colored, who claimed that he was 128 years old, is dead in Mercer.

Mrs. James Brown, of Madison, is dead as the result of a dose of carbolic acid taken probably by mistake.

C. P. Cecil, Jr., the enterprising Main street grocer, will establish a farming implement, harness and wagon store at Perryville on or about the first of January. Will Foster will have the charge of the new store. At a meeting of the Board of Control of the Q & C it was decided to build 11,000 feet of new slide track at the Danville depot immediately. The Slowest Train On Record.

An old traveling man who seemed to be very loquacious, jolly and full of fun, amused as well as entertained quite a large crowd of passengers the other day at the Union depot in Montgomery, Ala. While waiting for a delayed train, he said that he had traveled all over the United States, from Maine to Mexico, and the greater part of Europe, and had ridden on a great many trains, of the different named roads, but the slowest that he ever had the misfortune to ride on, was several years ago on the old Kentucky Central Railway, that ran between Rowland and Richmond, Kentucky. He said that the conductor assisted him and his little son on the train at Rowland. He then yelled "All Aboard!" The train went jogging slowly along and to pass off the time as agreeably as possible under the trying circumstances, he commenced getting acquainted with the passengers on board by talking and laughing with them, something similar to traveling on a steamer. The train stopped at Port Estill to take on some passengers. The conductor came leisurely along through the coach taking up the tickets. Just before entering Richmond he went up to my son, and said: "Your ticket, please." He responded by saying, "Mr. Conductor, you have taken up my ticket, but it has been so long ago I suppose you have forgotten about it, as I was then riding on a half fare ticket; don't you remember the old man and little boy that you assisted on the train at Rowland? We gave you two tickets reading from Rowland to Richmond, although since the transaction I have grown to be quite an old man—almost in my dotage; have become weak and very feeble, gray and bald-headed, and have grown whiter on myself longer than my father's." The conductor gave him a suspicious look, and said to him: "Well, I suppose I will have to give you the benefit of the doubt and let you go on to your destination without any further hindrance." STORE-ROOM at Hustonville for rent. Splendid stand for gentle furniture or furniture and undertaking. James Frye, Hustonville, Ky.

McKINNEY.—Prof. J. E. Ware's music class will give a free concert at the Baptist church, McKinney, Saturday evening next. Everybody invited.

WHILE driving down Lancaster street the other day Miss Sadie Staggs' horse began to kick when a piece of harness broke. Several girls were in the buggy and jumped out, but Miss Sadie swung to the lines until assistance arrived and very probably saved the vehicle from being smashed.

CARD OF THANKS.—We desire through your columns to sincerely thank all who were so kind to us in our recent trouble. We shall forever cherish those deeds of kindness and hope that some day we may be able to partly repay them. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. VanArsdale, Hustonville.

REYNOLDS.—Mr. Clark Reynolds, one of the best known citizens of the Southern End, died at Waynesburg yesterday after a long illness and will be buried at 11 o'clock this morning. A wife and several grown children are left to mourn the loss of a kind hearted and indulgent father. Mr. Reynolds was an honorable, clever man and the announcement of his death will cause sorrow wherever he was known.

ASKS A CORRECTION.—Mr. J. M. Carter, of Moreland, who seems to think he is the only J. M. Carter in the country, writes: "Yesterday's INTERIOR JOURNAL says J. M. Carter was fined $50 for selling whisky to a minor. You look at the court record again and correct. I never sold whisky in my life and I do not want the readers of the I. J. to think so. However, I am due this correction." We cheerfully correct. The court's books show that we were wrong. An "M" crept in where an "H" should have been. Beg your pardon, Mr. Carter.

THE new schedule will go into effect on the K. C. division next Sunday. The through train to Cincinnati will be taken off and the Mayeville train which has heretofore stopped at Richmond will arrive here at 8:50 p. m. and will leave next morning at 5 o'clock. Connections with the Cincinnati train will be made at Paris and the Queen City can be reached by 10:30 a. m. By taking the C. & O. at Winchester passengers will be able to leave here at 5 a. m. and reach Lexington at 8:15. The change of schedule will make it necessary for an all night man at the depot.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The wheels of justice continue to grind at the courthouse although not a great deal of business has been transacted since our last report. The case of Alfred Bright, for killing Sam Blakemore, also colored, was continued until next term on account of absent witnesses. B. F. Harris, a one-armed Negro, confessed to stealing cattle and was given two years. Joe Hilton was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons. The trial of Charles Stringer, Will Hlatt, Will Crutcheff and George Sandusky, charged with breaking into the Lincoln County National Bank was begun yesterday and is still in progress. Hon. R. C. Warren and son, Ashby M. Warren, represent Stringer, Col. W. G. Welch represents Hlatt and Crutcheff and Messrs. Geo. B. Saufley and Ashby M. Warren, Sandusky. The grand jury adjourned yesterday after returning about 40 indictments. Among the lot were indictments against James Cottrell and Hiram Deabam for knocking down and robbing Mr. C. H. VanArsdale of the east End.

LOOK at the label on which your name is printed and see if you do not owe for your paper. If you do, oblige us with an early remittance.

THEY HAVE ENTERED.—The Hustonville male quartette has entered the vocal contest and their many friends believe that they will get the "gold."

LOST, somewhere in Stanford after the wedding Wednesday, a white and black lace fan with ivory sticks. Finder will please return to Mrs. J. G. Carpenter.

$13,000.—Lincoln county will collect in a few days from the Queen & Crescent and L. & N. railroads $13,000 franchise tax for 1896 to 1902. This will considerably swell the county's sinking fund.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

SAUFLEY-ENGLEMAN.—In the presence of the Methodist church full of people and others clinging on to windows and doors Mr. H. Rowan Saufley and Miss Annie Bronaugh Engleman were pronounced husband and wife Wednesday evening in a pretty as well as impressive ceremony by Rev. S. M. Logan, of Middlesboro, assisted by Rev. D. J. Ross, pastor of the Methodist church here. Friends of the popular pair had transformed the pulpit into a veritable flower garden and with candles by the score lighted here and there the church was indeed a scene of beauty. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party arrived and they entered the church to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, beautifully rendered by Mrs. C. H. Yeager and Mr. C. E. Cox. On the right aisle were Messrs. J. W. Rout, Jr., and Ashby M. Warren and on the left Messrs. George Hume, of Richmond, and John S. Baughman, ushers. Following the first two were Misses Susan Fisher Woods and Elise Engleman, bridesmaids, Miss Beale K. Engleman, flower girl, and the groom on the arm of his brother, Mr. George B. Saufley, while behind the last named ushers came Misses Kate Alcorn and Sara Dunn, bridesmaids, Miss Berta Jean Penny, flower girl, and the bride with her sister, Miss Beale T. Engleman. Arriving at the altar the ushers and bridesmaids took positions on each side of the pulpit while the bridal couple, maid of honor and best man passed through the flower gates of the pulpit and the former facing Rev. Logan took the vows that bound their lives until death doth part. The bride was beautifully gowned in white organdie and wore a bridal veil. Miss Beale T. Engleman, the maid of honor, wore pink organdie and carried pink chrysanthemums, while the bridesmaids were attired in white organdies and carried white flower girls were dressed in snowy white and carried pink carnations. It was a beautiful wedding, complete in every detail and an occasion that will not soon be forgotten by those who had the good fortune to witness it. The bride, who is a handsome blonde, is one of the most lovable and lovely young women in all this section. Naturally bright and shrewdly cultivated, amiable in disposition, possessing a disposition that is sunshine itself she is a queen among women and the man who has won her has every right to feel proud as well as deserving of the congratulations of his friends. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Engleman, one of the best and most influential families in the blue-grass and is as popular as she is pretty and attractive. The groom is an exceptionally fine young man. Energetic, capable and clever, inheriting his father's brilliancy, Rowan Saufley is as able to cope with the world as any man. The soul of honor, spurning small things, he is one of the few young men in our knowledge who has the implicit confidence of all who know him. Having been a co-worker with him for over seven years we feel that we know him "like a book" and to say we admire him very greatly would be but a poor way of expressing our good feeling for him. We rejoice at his good fortune in securing such a jewel as he has for a helpmeet and that the years that are to come will be as full of happiness for him and his as was his wedding day is our sincere wish. Mr. and Mrs. Saufley will occupy a cottage on Danville Avenue for a while and will take their meals at the St. Asaph Hotel. They received over 100 handsome presents, consisting of almost everything imaginable, enough, in fact, to go to housekeeping on.

Judge and Mrs. M. C. Saufley gave a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rowan Saufley Wednesday evening from 9 till 12, which was one of the swellest, as well as most enjoyable, events of the season. The guests included relatives and close friends of the bridal couple and all were made to feel that it was good to be there by the most hospitable treatment of this excellent family. It was a delightful occasion and the arrival of the party was the source of general regret. An excellent lunch was exquisitely served at the proper hour.

Too much praise can not be given Mrs. C. H. Yeager and Mr. Charles E. Cox for the splendid music they furnished before, during and after the marriage ceremony. It was of a very high order and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

STYLISH new novelties in dress goods just opened. John J. Jones.

THOMAS COOPER and Mrs. Frances Jackson, colored, were made one in a well wedding at the Baptist church last night.

ON Wednesday, 19th, will occur the last foot ball game of the season at Danville. It will be also the greatest game, as it will decide the college championship of the State. On that day K. U. and C. C. will come together. The coaches are working day and night to bring their giants to the very top notch of training; and the men are steeling themselves for the great struggle.

20TH ANNIVERSARY.—Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter Givens celebrated the 20th anniversary of their marriage with a family reunion Saturday last. The guests present were Mesdames Mary Givens, Pattie Denny, Lillie B. Carpenter, Mattie Givens, Beale Givens, Ella Grimes, Bird Givens Beazley, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Ballou, of Lancaster. The following special friends of the family were present and added much mirth and pleasure to the occasion: Misses Belle Denny, Sallie Givens, Mary Byrd Givens, Mattie Grimes and Josephine Carpenter, W. P. Grimes, Bowen Givens and J. G. Carpenter. The presents were numerous and costly. Mrs. Sallie Moore, Mrs. Givens' mother, was absent by sickness, but helped celebrate her devoted and accomplished daughter's reunion by sending her a barrel of Havanna china. The dinner could not have been excelled by Delmonico and the guests showed they were judges of Kentucky hospitality and pronounced it the best anniversary they had ever attended. John Givens Craddock was greatly missed.

A Fine Boyle County Farm For Sale.

266 acres, 1 1/2 miles from Danville, Ky., on the Lexington pike, 1 1/2 miles from the improvements on one side of a county road and 8 1/2 on the opposite side. Will be sold as a whole or separately in splendid neighborhood; school-house on the farm, convenient to a water mill, country store and Rural delivery. There is 1 distinct vein of water, either of which would afford water in abundance, besides 3 ponds and cistern at the house and barn. The improvements consist of: a two-story brick house, with 12-inch walls, 7 rooms, kitchen, hall, front and back porches and one of the best dry cellars in Kentucky, under the entire front of the house, store-room and a number of closets; all necessary outbuildings, barn for 10 horses, carriage house, corn crib, shop, sheds for machinery, granary, ice house at the door, coal house, good orchard, grapes, large, fine garden, asparagus bed, etc. A large, beautiful lawn, interspersed with forest trees, making it one of the most desirable and healthy homes in Central Kentucky. There is 150 acres in wheat and grass, 80 acres for corn and 20 acres for hemp. The next crop should make first payment. Danville has a population of about 1,000, 30 saloons, on the C. & S. R. R., with the Louisville Southern Extension a certainty. Central University for boys and Catholic college for girls, with a $2,000 building in progress and flattering prospects for the location of the State Presbyterian school, the place to educate your daughters and sons, all of which is calculated to enhance the value of real estate in the vicinity of Danville from 20 to 30 per cent, within the next 3 or 4 years, by the most conservative minds. Will be sold on reasonable terms and on the money. The purchaser can have 100 of the wheat crop and possession will be given within a reasonable time. This farm has clay subsoil susceptible of taking on the highest state of fertility, producing 20 barrels of corn and 25 bushel wheat per acre. This is a chance of a lifetime to get a bargain. Apply to Mrs. Lou Lytle on the farm or E. C. Weston, Stanford, Ky.
